SUBJECT: Presentation of the Employee of the Month for May 2007

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH FOR MAY 2007

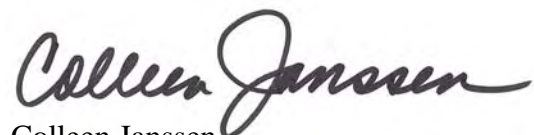

The District's employee of the month for May 2007 is Ron Territ. Ron has worked for the District since November 14, 1997. He works in the Park Operations and Maintenance Department as a Crew Leader - Heavy Equipment. This is his third award for Employee of the Month. The previous awards were in November 2000 and May 2004.

NOMINATION NARRATION

The person who nominated Ron had this to say about him, "This employee has demonstrated the ability to successfully perform his job assignments and special projects faithfully and without reservation. He can juggle many large projects with skill while utilizing time and equipment. The recent large special projects were considered high visual and high profile park sites. This person works within strict time limits and adverse conditions. Many compliments from spectators and agencies are in line for this employee's efforts. This person is a pleasure to work with and is an asset to the park district."

BOARD ACTION

Ron has been invited to attend the June 7, 2007 board meeting to receive a plaque from the board chair. He is also eligible for one day off with pay sometime in the next 60 days.
