PICKLEBALL—Modified Paddle Tennis

Athletic prowess and superior strength aren't necessary. Great speed isn't required. It doesn't take a lot of racket skills either. It's a combination of tennis and badminton and is played on a conventional badminton doubles court, with a 3' high net and overgrown ping pong paddles. Singles or doubles teams can play. Come out and try it! We'll teach you the game, and you'll be hooked, just like the 45,000 players already playing this game on the West Coast. If interested, contact Stan Kalsman at (805) 583-6059.
